

A Prayer To The Holy Guru Melodious Invocation Of Compassion

Root and line Gurus - grant all siddhis,
 Yidams, Buddhas and Bodhisattvas
 Boundless refuge objects truth's blessings
 May this heart-felt prayer be fulfilled!

In the sky of Lord of Voice's wish Rises knowledge's waxing mandala.
 Shining white rays of well-taught Dharma
 Friend of sage's teachings sea- I bow!

From the peak of sutra and tantra
 Flow the valid ear lineage's four streams
 Swirls in secret mind's ever-cool sea
 I pray to the Lobshe's hooded king!

Brilliant precepts' peace and tame conduct
 Bodhicitta's heart filling nectar
 Practice deep and secret of two stages
 I pray to the three Vajra holder!

In the time of five darkness' thicket
 Should you remain in the sleep of peace
 Who will guide us in the nights' darkness?
 Think of us Lord, with great compassion!

Forsake us not and hold samaya
 To dispel the darkness of doctrine
 Swiftly appear in a noble race
 Shine the wondrous nirmanakaya!

Crowning my head with precious jewel
 Of your lotus feet in all my lives
 May I relish nectar of your speech
 Not part from my Lord's race post bodhi!

By the grace of guru precious gem
 By whose wisdom, compassion, power
 And the power of my one pointed prayer
 May all wishes fulfill in accord!

This prayer was composed by I, the Sakya Trizin, Ngawang Kunga, of the Drolma Phodrang, with one pointed faith and devotion, for recitation by all participants when an array of offering clouds were proffered during a Guru Yoga Puja held at the Sakya Centre in Rajpur.

The puja was conducted when the Great Vajradhara Kyabje Chogye Trichen Ngawang Khyenrab Lekshe Gyatsho Tashi Drakpai Gyaltsen Pal Sangpo (1919-2007), the sublime crown of the Omniscient White Lotus Holder (H.H. the Dalai Lama) and my own All Pervasive Lord of the Wheel, whose kindness is incomparable, demonstrated the act of dissolving his form body (Rupakaya) into Dharmakaya.

This prayer was rendered into English by Lama Choedak, who had a moving experience when reciting this prayer in the sacred presence of the Holy Body of His Eminence Chogye Trichen Rinpoche, who dwelled in Samadhi (thuk-dam) for fifteen days after his parinirvana.

The bold metered version is included for the benefit of those who wish to chant.
