

Khenchen Appey Rinpoche's composition

Unparalleled holy guru!

Your perfected hearing, contemplation and meditation based upon moral precept,
Illustrating the Buddha's doctrine of teaching, debate and composition,
Has benefited sentient beings through knowledge, compassion and power.
We bring you to mind, holy guru.

Object of refuge of Triloka!

Abbot of thousands of Bikshus endowed with moral precept,
Supreme Spiritual Friend of thousands of Bodhisattvas,
Guru of the assembly of countless Vidhyadharas.
We bring you to mind, holy guru.

Great Sthavira!

Who took birth into the holy clan of Che-tsun,
Blessed with naturally endowed moral precept,
Supreme leader of Bikshus and root of the Buddha's Shasana.
We bring you to mind, holy guru.

Obeisance to the Lord of Doctrine and sentient beings!

Constantly engaged in the spiritual activities of the Three Chakras,
Through not slightly distracting from the profound path
And meditative absorption endowed with perfection of physical and mental pliancy.
We bring you to mind, holy guru.

Guru of all sentient beings, we bow down to you!

Gloriously shining over the crowns of human and celestial beings,
Your padmaraga-like Holy feet,
Revered by all teachers of the world.
We bring you to mind, holy guru.

Please save us swiftly by means of your compassion, oh Guru!

As the sun-like doctrine of the universe has set,
Our light of happiness and joy has faded away,
And we have become devoid of saviour, refuge, companionship and support,
We bring you to mind, holy guru.

We implore you, holy Guru!

As there is no significant purpose in constantly dwelling
In the state of Dharmakaya, without object and beyond expression,
Please display a million Nirmanakaya bodies, and benefit infinite sentient beings!
We bring you to mind, holy guru.

We pay obeisance with prostration through body, speech and mind to the ho(v) relics of His Eminence Chogye Trichen Rinpoche, who has entered into Parinirvana. bearing spiritual significance and immense merit to those who see, hear or, recollect and touch his holy body.
